

ReportMessenger Versions

Enterprise Edition*

ReportMessenger Enterprise Edition provides unlimited execution and delivery of reports on a single server throughout the enterprise. Installation support is provided for this package when the hardware and software requirements are met.

SME Edition*

ReportMessenger SME Edition provides report execution and delivery to a maximum of 50 recipients from one server. Installation support is provided for this package when the hardware and software requirements are met.

SME to Enterprise Edition upgrade*

The SME Edition is upgradeable to the Enterprise Edition at any time.

ReportMessenger Support Plans

For technical support and upgrades a ReportMessenger Support Plan is required. This contract is valid for one year, renewable annually, with the option to change support plans at each renewal date.

Unlimited Support

15% of net purchase price *

This support contract includes access to protected support pages on our website, software upgrades released during the contract term and technical support by phone and email during normal business hours for the duration of the contract.

* Price available on request.

For more information or to schedule a live demonstration please contact us at:

sales@clearpeaks.com